NOTICES

All communications should be addressed to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, Room 611, 14 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass. 02108.

All missionary money should be made payable to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ and sent to: Attention of Miss Pauline Cutler, Treasurer, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

Unless requested otherwise, these contributions, beyond the sum the Conference retains for its own work (from undesignated money), are sent on to the Treasurer of the United Church of Christ in New York, where they are divided among the Boards and Instrumentalities according to the agreed upon percentages.

It is recommended and earnestly requested that church treasurers remit monthly such funds as are in hand, and that the final remittance for each calendar year be sent before January 10, if credit is desired in the next Year Book.

Copies of the Act of Incorporation may be had on application to 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108.

The churches are requested to contribute through the treasurers of their Associations for the expenses of the Conference a sum as Fellowship dues equivalent to $1.00 for each member, based upon the total membership of January 1, 1967, and the treasurers of the Associations are requested to forward the amounts as soon as possible to the Conference Treasurer, 14 Beacon St., Boston 02108.

The "Minutes" are sent to the churches by direction of the Conference, with distribution of one copy to every minister, one to every church clerk, one to every Conference official or committee member, one to each local Association official named within, and one to every life member of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society. As long as the edition lasts, other copies may be secured for One Dollar, upon application to the Registrar, 14 Beacon St., Boston 02108. It is suggested that every church preserve a copy of the "Minutes" with its other records.

Copies of the Advance Reports may also be secured by making application to the Registrar.

The National Year Book is available to church clerks and retired ministers upon request to the United Church of Christ, 297 Park Avenue South, New York City 10010.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

Origin of Domestic Missionary Society

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

Origin of Massachusetts Conference

The General Association of Massachusetts came into being in 1802. This ultimately became the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. The Conference then merged with the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society in 1927, to become the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. In 1953 the name was changed to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. In 1966 the name was changed again to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. The Conference assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of fourteen persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

ARTICLE I

Purpose and Terminology

1. The purposes of the Conference are as stated in its Charter.

2. Whenever in these By-Laws the word Conference is used it shall be held to refer to the Corporation as a Conference of the United Church of Christ and as a Conference of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Churches.

3. All churches which are members of associations in voluntary fellowship with and recognized by the Conference, whether or not such churches are a part of the United Church of Christ, are entitled to elect voting members of the Conference in accordance with these By-Laws.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of an association in fellowship with the Conference may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officiis), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have ministerial standing in an association in fellowship with the Conference.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more Vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and Assistant Treasurer and such other officers as the Conference may from time to time elect. Any of the said Executive Offices except those of President, Secretary and Treasurer may be abolished by vote of the Conference. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees of at least one Trustee from each Association and from any Association having churches with a total membership of more than 10,000, an additional Trustee for each excess 10,000 church members or major fraction thereof, one member from the Board of Directors of the City Missionary Society of Boston, Inc., and six (6) members-at-large, of whom one (1) shall be chosen each even-numbered year, and two (2) each odd-numbered year. The President, the Moderator and the Vice-Moderator, and Chairmen of all Conference standing committees, shall also be members ex officiis. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large may serve for two consecutive terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustees to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board.

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

(a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.

(b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.

(c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.

(d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.

(e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the churches of the Conference.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

ARTICLE VI

Officers and Their Duties

1. The Moderator, or in his absence, one of the Vice-Moderators, shall preside over all meetings of the Conference.

2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the Conference and shall, subject to the direction of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees, have general charge of its missionary and benevolent work and of its other activities. He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of Conference Executives) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Area Ministers and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall have the custody of the records and of all bonds given by the treasurer as hereinafter provided. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the Annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. He shall make a report at each annual meeting of the Conference and shall make such other reports as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time require. He shall receive all contributions for benevolences sent to him by the churches and by individuals and shall disburse the same in accordance with the instructions of the donors. He shall give such bonds for the faithful performance of his duties as may from time to time be required by the Board of Trustees. The Assistant Treasurer shall perform such duties as may be assigned by the Treasurer, and act in his stead in event of incapacity or absence.

5. The Area Ministers shall counsel with and assist the churches in the area which may from time to time be assigned to them by the Board of Trustees or the President.

6. The Minister of Missions and Stewardship shall have the duty of advancing the interest of the churches in the work of missions at home and abroad. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as he may be able, in the general work of the Conference.

7. The Minister or, if he is not ordained, the Director of the Laity shall have special charge for deepening and strengthening Christian life and witness among the men and women of the churches of the Conference. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as he may be able in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Minister or Ministers of Christian Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the churches of the Conference. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, at their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff beyond the close of the Annual Meeting following his 70th birthday. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 11% of the charge on his salary.

3. Lay members of the staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary plus such amount as the Conference as employer shall pay for his United States Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at a place designated by the Board of Trustees on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the Vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall adopt and propose to the churches the annual rate of Fellowship dues for the expenses and other purposes of the Conference. The Conference, upon recommendations of the Board of Trustees, shall at each annual meeting determine the amount to be retained from Our Christian World Mission giving of the churches.

ARTICLE IX

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

(a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.

(b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

(a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

(b) A Program Committee, of which the Moderator, Vice Moderator, the secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting, shall be members ex officiis. At each annual meeting three (3) members shall be elected for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting.

(c) A Committee on Christian Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The task of the committee shall be to promote and develop the educational ministry of Associations and churches, as a means of nurturing Christian growth and commitment in children, youth and adults.

The work of the Committee on Christian Education shall be done through various sub-committees, including, but not limited to, the program areas of children's ministry, youth ministry, adult ministry, family life, the church and the arts and camps and conferences. The sub-committees may co-opt persons of special interest and skill.

(d) A Committee on Christian Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.

(e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of approximately thirty members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining to be composed of the Chairman of each association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a member association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

(f) A committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of one member from each association, who shall be either the chairman of the association committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, or, where such a committee does not exist nor function, one from the association who has an interest in this area of church life, such a latter person to be recommended by the moderator of each association upon request of the Nominating Committee. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections. In addition there shall be six members-at-large, for a term of three years, two each year.

It shall be the duty of the committee to advance the interest of the churches to witness to the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in the communities where our churches exist, to seek to evangelize the unchurched and the inactive memberships of our churches by means and methods commensurate with those of our national Office on Evangelism.

(g) A Committee on Our Christian World Mission. Each of the sixteen associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

There shall also be two ex officiis members, representing the Committee of the Laity.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work and support of Our Christian World Mission.

(h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.

(i) A Committee on the Urban Church, consisting of fifteen members of whom five shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this committee to study the special problems and opportunities for Christian service of churches in the urban areas and to offer such practical helps as may be possible and welcomed by the churches in these areas.

(j) A Conference Centers Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Centers at Framingham and Craigville and any other properties designated by the Trustees as Conference Centers shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Centers Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of fifteen (15) members, approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen and one-third laywomen to be elected for three-year terms, so arranged that one person shall be elected annually from each of the five areas served by the Area Ministers.

The Conference Centers Committee shall elect its own officers and subcommittee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member having served two (2) full consecutive terms shall be eligible for reelection until after a lapse of one (1) year.

(k) A Committee on Campus Ministries consisting of nine (9) members, of whom three (3) shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three (3) years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the opportunities for developing religious programs among students and faculty at the college and university level; to cooperate with local churches, denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this specialized field; and to review requests for Conference aid for the support of student programs within Massachusetts.

(l) A Committee on Christian Unity consisting of fifteen (15) members, five (5) of whom shall be elected for a term of one year at the annual meeting adopting this By-Law, five (5) of whom for a term of two years, five (5) of whom for a term of three years, and thereafter five (5) shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three (3) years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the opportunities to promote and achieve Christian Unity and to cooperate with denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this field.

(m) A committee of the Laity, the whole people of God, consisting of an executive group of 22 members-at-large, geographically representative, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee; and three members from each association, persons of special competence, a layman, a laywoman, and a member of the clergy, nominated by the executive committee of each association, shall be elected for a three-year term at the annual meeting. Executive members' terms shall be rotated by means of year classes, and association members' terms may be three consecutive years, without additional re-elective privileges. Should an association fail to nominate persons, nominations for that association will be supplied by the executive group of this committee. The committee shall elect its own chairman, vice-chairmen, secretary, and commission, and/or subcommittee chairmen annually.

It shall be the responsibility of this committee to increase, develop, and coordinate the activities and participation of Christian men and women, to interpret the theology of the laity, to enable the renewal of the laity, and to explore new forms of ministry to the world through studies in Christian Faith, Life and Work. Area assemblies of grouped associations may be used in study, planning, and training to share ideas, purposes, programs, projects and new ventures within the associations, and/or districts, local churches and groups, whereby new understanding of the true mission of the laity will be implemented.

The Conference Committee of the Laity may co-opt persons of special competence as it deems wise and helpful to provide resources, information, and guidance for association, district and local church groups, to the end that growth experience in worship, study and service may be nurtured for: (1) laity in the church, (2) the church addressing itself in mission, and (3) the laity at work in the world. The Conference Committee of the Laity will continue the work formerly carried on by the Laymen's Council and the Women's Fellowship.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees, the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be laywomen and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all of the topics presented in the reports.

6. A person who is a member of any committee ex officio shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE X

Board of Ministerial Aid

The Board of Ministerial Aid shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of aiding needy ministers and their families and shall make an annual report to the Conference. On notice of a vacancy in the membership of the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Conference shall nominate a person to fill the vacancy.

ARTICLE XI

Boston Seaman's Friend Society

The Boston Seaman's Friend Society shall be the agent of the Conference in the work of promoting the spiritual and temporal welfare of seamen and shall make an annual report to the Conference. The Conference shall annually elect five members of the Society for a term of three years each.

ARTICLE XII

Board of Pastoral Supply

The Conference shall elect seven members to represent it on the Congregational Board of Pastoral Supply, two members to be elected each year to serve for a period of three years, and a third member to be elected in any year to serve for a period of three years whenever necessary to satisfy the requirement of seven members. The Board shall, through its Secretary, make an annual report to the Conference.

ARTICLE XIII

Corporate Seal

The seal of the Conference shall consist of two or more concentric circles, with the words, "Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ" around the circumference between these circles and the words, "Inc., 1808" within the inner circle.

ARTICLE XIV

Special Orders

1. All matters of business presented to the Conference, except those presented by the Board of Trustees or through duly appointed committees of the Conference, shall be referred to the Business Committee unless referred to some other committee by special vote of the Conference.

2. All matters of business referred to the Business Committee shall be reported for action before the final adjournment of the annual meeting.

ARTICLE XV

Rules of Order

The Rules of Order shall be those of common parliamentary usage subject to the following specifications:

(a) No member shall speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Conference.

(b) When a question is before the Conference, the Moderator shall entertain motions only as follows: — to adjourn, to table, for the previous question, to postpone to a fixed time, to commit, to amend or to postpone indefinitely; these several motions shall have precedence in the foregoing order.

ARTICLE XVI

Amendments

1. These by-laws, except Articles II and III, may be amended at any regularly called meeting of the Conference by a two-thirds vote, provided the amendment was proposed at the preceding annual meeting of the Conference or is recommended by the Board of Trustees.

2. Articles II and III may be amended by a two-thirds vote, but only after the proposed amendment has been submitted to the Conference in writing at the previous annual meeting and notice has been sent to the several churches connected with the Conference at least three months prior to the meeting at which action is to be taken.

STANDING RULES OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees shall appoint annually the following Standing Committees at the first meeting of the Board of Trustees following the Annual Meeting of the Conference.

1. An EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE to be composed of at least seven (7) members of the Board of Trustees, together with the Moderator, Vice Moderator, and Chairman of the Board of Trustees ex officiis. Trustees appointed by the Board shall normally serve for two years. This Committee shall meet regularly before each meeting of the Board. It shall receive and review all requests for grants to Massachusetts Ministries. It shall make recommendations to the Board of Trustees and carry out actions referred to it by the Board of Trustees. The Executive Committee shall have, and may exercise all of the functions and powers of the Board of Trustees when the Board is not in session.

2. A FINANCE COMMITTEE composed of at least six (6) members of the Board of Trustees, together with the Treasurer, ex officio. It shall recommend general financial policies to the Board of Trustees, shall carry out the policies of the Trustees as to the acceptance or non-acceptance or conditions of legacies, devises, or gifts, other than real estate; in cases where no special committee is created by the Board of Trustees for the purposes, it shall be charged with supervising the administration of trust funds or securities which are committed to its care for churches and others. It shall normally invest Conference funds in shares of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund except that it may temporarily invest in U. S. Government securities or deposit in savings banks.

3. A PROPERTY COMMITTEE composed of at least six (6) members of the Board of Trustees, together with the Treasurer, ex officio. It shall make recommendations to the Board of Trustees relative to the acquisition, disposition, maintenance, improvement and use of real estate owned by the Conference, shall carry out as to real estate the policies of the Trustees as to the acceptance or non-caceptance, or conditions, of legacies, devises and gifts of real estate to the Conference. It shall with the concurrence of the Finance Committee recommend to the Board of Trustees what mortgages, if any, may be placed on property of Conference and what mortgages, if any, the Conference shall hold on property of others.

4. A BUDGET COMMITTEE composed of at least five (5) members of the Board of Trustees together with the Moderator, Vice Moderator, Treasurer and Chairman of the Board of Trustees ex officiis. It shall examine and recommend to the Board of Trustees an annual budget of estimated income and expenditures for each fiscal year, shall study the financial operations of the Conference and make recommendations in connection therewith to the Board of Trustees.

5. A PERSONNEL AND SALARIES COMMITTEE composed of at least five (5) members of the Board of Trustees, including the Minister and President of the Conference, two (2) of whom shall be lay people. The Committee shall make recommendations on salaries to the Budget Committee, it shall deal with problems and opportunities of the staff in their relationship to the Trustees and the Conference, and shall make recommendations to the Board of Trustees for the Executive staff.

6. A NOMINATING COMMITTEE composed of three (3) persons whose duties shall be: (a) to nominate officers of the Board of Trustees; (b) to nominate four (4) persons to the Conference Nominating Committee for terms of two (2) years to be elected at the Annual Meeting; (c) to nominate the members of the Executive Committee, and such other Standing or Special Committees as may be requested of it by the Chairman of the Trustees or the Board of Trustees.

7. The President of the Conference shall be a member ex officio, with vote, of all Standing Committees appointed by the Board of Trustees.

MINUTES
168th ANNUAL MEETING
of the
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

May 12-13, 1967

CENTRAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Worcester, Massachusetts

The 168th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ was called to order by the Moderator, Mr. Raymond H. Frost of Beverly, at 1:10 p.m. on Friday, May 12, 1967 in the Central Congregational Church, Worcester.

The Rev. John E. Morgan of Sherborn, Chaplain, led the opening worship, giving a fresh and stimulating meditation.

The Moderator introduced Mr. Joseph C. Casdin, Mayor of Worcester, who brought the warm and gracious greetings of the city.

The Rev. James N. McCutcheon, pastor of the host church, was introduced and he extended a cordial welcome to the delegates and guests on behalf of his church. Mr. McCutcheon then presented Mr. Charles Zettek, Director of the Worcester Redevelopment Authority, who addressed the conference on "Urban Renewal." Following Mr. Zettek's informative, illustrated talk, the delegates and guests went to a choice of interest groups: 1) Bus Tour of Urban Renewal in Worcester; 2) Hearing on Social Action Resolutions, Rev. Wells B. Grogan, Cambridge, Chairman; 3) Panel: "Our Christian World Mission," Rev. H. Merrill Emery, Somerset, Chairman; 4) Address: "The Consultation on Church Union," Professor Roger Hazelton, Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Centre, speaker; Rev. Winthrop F. Puffer, Jr., Holyoke, Chairman.

Prior to the recess for the interest groups, the Moderator called to the podium Chaplain George E. Fort of Fort Devens who made a plea for chaplains to serve on active duty and with reserve units in our Armed Forces.

At 4:40 p.m., the Moderator called the meeting to order and appointed the following committees:

Business: Rev. James C. Glasser, Beverly, Chairman; Mrs. Norman Cheney, Weymouth; Mr. Earle I. Clemence, Worcester; Rev. Nehemiah Boynton, III, Stockbridge; Mr. W. Raymond Wilson, Townsend; Mr. Merritt A. Wright, East Longmeadow.

Credentials: Rev. H. Milton Bartlett, Boylston, Chairman; Mrs. Frances D. Hayward, Worcester; Miss Doris B. Hillsgrove, Boston.

The Moderator introduced Mr. Lincoln S. Cain, Pittsfield, who would be the Parliamentarian for the Annual Meeting, and the Rev. Malcolm Matheson, Worcester, Vice-Moderator who would assist at the podium.

Dr. Myron W. Fowell, Secretary of the Conference, presented the Advance Reports which had been received by all delegates prior to the meeting. It was moved and seconded and VOTED: That the Advance Reports be received.

The Rev. James Glasser, Chairman of the Business Committee, presented a resolution from the Committee on Christian Unity, and the Rev. Allen Keedy, Norwood, spoke to it. It was moved, seconded and VOTED: That the Massachusetts State Conference, United Church of Christ, make a special study of the ecumenical work of the Conference through the Massachusetts Council of Churches. The Christian Unity Committee feels that now is the time to evaluate this work so that it might be done in the most meaningful and effective manner. It was further recommended that the Trustees be empowered to appoint a committee of seven, consisting of one trustee, one member of the Conference Staff, one member of the Christian Unity Committee, three members-at-large and that the seventh member be a person whom the Trustees invite from the staff of the Massachusetts Council of Churches to take part in the study. We further recommend that a report be made to the Trustees at the November meeting. If the findings warrant, a change might be made in the Conference policy of ecumenical funding and that this policy might be changed and implemented in the Conference budget for 1968, and that a complete report be made at the next Annual Meeting.

The Moderator presented Mr. Ralph F. Tuller, Arlington, Chairman of the Board of Trustees. Prior to reading his report, Mr. Tuller announced that the usual votes regarding Per Capita for 1968 and the amount of OCWM retention for 1968 would be delayed until the Structure Committee report had been given on Saturday. Mr. Tuller's report was as follows:

One of the clear findings of the Arthur D. Little structure study is that most laymen have only the vaguest idea of just what the Massachusetts Conference is. I will venture that most people, ministers as well as laymen, have even less knowledge concerning the Board of Trustees of the Conference. And yet you will see that one of the eight basic Guidelines for Change, making up the heart of the Arthur D. Little report, calls for increased leadership by the Board of Trustees.

As a first step, it seems pretty obvious that the Trustees have got to do a better job of reporting and communicating. Responsible leadership requires full, clear, completely open accountability. Anything less than that invites the suspicion that either we're doing something we're afraid to report, or else we're not doing anything that's worth reporting.

I can assure you that we do indeed have something worth reporting. I am not now thinking of any particular actions taken by the Trustees during the past year. I refer instead to something vastly more significant, and that is the development of a new, expanding, probing concept of trusteeship.

This new spirit in the Trustees is really a reflection of the spirit of last year's Annual Meeting of this Conference in Springfield. It's a spirit that is full of new ideas, full of questions, full of challenge. It was demonstrated vividly at the first meeting of the Trustees last May, only ten days after Springfield. At that first meeting, there was no feeling of discouragement or defeat as might have been expected, but there was instead an exciting and spirited discussion in which virtually every Trustee took part.

It is also fair to say that this concept of live trusteeship has been nurtured in recent months by the pushing, prodding and judicious needling of the Arthur D. Little staff. A prime example of this would be the overnight retreat at Craigville last March. Twenty-nine Trustees spent a day and a half together, challenged by Dr. Paul F. Ross and Dr. James N. Gettemy to come up with an answer to the question, "As Trustees, what is our trust?"

In brief, we are beginning to face up to the fact that the office of Conference Trustee is not an empty honor, but is a tough and time-consuming job.

It's probably true that we're not structured right to do the job. For one thing, there are too many of us. The Conference By-Laws provide for one Trustee from each of the 16 Associations, plus another Trustee for each 10,000 additional church members in an Association. This means that there are two Trustees from Hampden, Pilgrim and Worcester Associations, six Trustees from Metropolitan Boston Association, and one from each of the other 12 Associations, for a total of 24 Trustees representing Associations. The By-Laws call for six more members-at-large. There is a Trustee from the City Missionary Society of Boston. And the President of the Conference, the Moderator, the Vice-Moderator, and the Chairmen of all 13 Conference standing committees are Trustees by virtue of their offices. This all adds up to 47 persons, who constituted this past year an exciting and representative group, but who nevertheless are a lot of people.

The theory, of course, is that each Trustee will report Trustee activities to the people whom he represents. Except in rare instances, the theory just doesn't work. Most of us have failed to give meaningful reports to our Associations; and when we have, the word doesn't filter through to the people in the local churches.

With respect to the Conference Trustees, the problem is the same as it has been with most other areas of Conference activity: the conduit between the Conference and the local church is a clogged pipe. A great deal is going in both ends of the pipe, but very little has been coming out of either end.

I hope you see that in this report I am attempting to express two major themes: My first theme is a realistic recognition that by and large, most of the members of the United Church of Christ in Massachusetts presently have little or no knowledge of any significant work being done by the Board of Trustees, and certainly most people have no feeling at all of involvement or participation in any such work. But my second theme is that the Trustees themselves have begun to catch a vision of what responsible and responsive leadership could mean in helping to carry out the mission of the Church in Massachusetts, both in activities beyond the local parish and in assistance to the work of the local parish.

I expect it is obvious from what I've said that the Trustees whole-heartedly endorse the report of the Arthur D. Little structure study, and we urge your thoughtful and vocal attention to it tomorrow morning.

We have been much impressed by all of the members of the Arthur D. Little team, and those of us who have worked closely with him express our special admiration for the insight, keenness, and dedication of the team leader, Dr. Paul F. Ross.

We also owe more than most of us can possibly realize to the members of the Structure Committee and their chairmen, Loomis Patrick and Charles E. Butler. We set ourselves an almost impossible timetable, and it is quite literally true that the schedule could not have been met without Charlie Butler.

During this past year many Trustees have devoted many man hours to the structure study and related matters. One such related matter, of course, is the work of the Committee on Advance, and tomorrow you will discuss the report of the Advance Committee.

I should mention other items that have occupied Trustee attention during the past year, as for example the administration of the Conference Centers at Framingham and Craigville, and the new property in Cummington. A matter of great and continuing concern to the Trustees is the level of salaries paid to professional staff, clergy and lay, both on the Conference Staff and in the local churches.

As would be expected, we devote much trustee time to finances. You have already heard that at this Annual Meeting we do not intend to ask for action on the usual financial matters—1968 per capita dues, and 1968 retention from our Christian World Mission receipts. Most matters of finance will be postponed until next October for your action then.

But you will shortly be receiving the Treasurer's report, and you will soon hear from the Chairman of the Trustee Budget Committee, and you already have received a tentative 1968 budget. Any questions whatsoever concerning finances, or concerning any other trustee business, will always be completely in order, either on the floor of this Annual Meeting or by private communication at any time. We make our pledge to do our level best to give you a straight answer, and if we don't know the answer we'll tell you so and then we'll get busy finding out the answer.

One last word. At the Recessed Meeting of the Conference here in Worcester last October, I indicated that at some point we would have to decide how we are going to pay for the services of Arthur D. Little. There is still no firm decision on this. What in fact has happened is this: Arthur D. Little has submitted monthly bills, and these bills have been paid from cash in the bank. But we are really just borrowing from ourselves, because this cash is budgeted for other purposes and sometime we've got to replace it.

Eventually, unless the money is found from some other source—and the only other source I know of is the membership of the local churches—eventually we will have to raise this money by selling some of our investments. I would hope that this does not become necessary.

Miss Pauline Cutler, Treasurer, was introduced and she gave further interpretation of the Treasurer's Report in addition to the narrative account which accompanied the printed report. Following questions and discussion, it was moved, seconded and VOTED: That the Treasurer's Report be received.

The Moderator called on the Rev. James L. Lancaster, South Hadley, Chairman of the Budget Committee who presented the 1968 tentative budget for information only. It was explained that no action would be taken until the Structure Committee had made its recommendations on Saturday. He did interpret the Budget as representing the traditional ways in which our money is raised and the traditional ways in which it is spent. He urged every minister, delegate, church and Association to discuss how the Conference can raise new money and to inform the Board of Trustees of any new suggestions.

It was moved, seconded and VOTED: That the report of the Budget Committee be accepted.

The Rev. Raymond Williams of Greenfield presented the official observers to our Annual Meeting. Representatives of the Roman Catholic Dioceses of Springfield, Fall River, Worcester and Boston were present as well as representatives from the Massachusetts Baptist Convention and the Western Massachusetts Diocese of the Episcopal Church.

At 5:10 p.m., the Moderator called for the Order of the Day and Dr. Penner introduced Mr. Charles H. Lockyear, Treasurer of the United Church of Christ who brought the greetings of the Executive Council of the United Church and addressed the delegates and guests on certain concerns of the United Church. Among these concerns were UCC participation in COCU, the next Biennial Emphasis on "The Local Church in God's Mission," the 1967 General Synod, the Structure Study now being conducted by Booz, Allen & Hamilton of the UCC and its instrumentalities, Basic Support and its needs, the relationship of Theological Education and the UCC, the Pension Boards, the Anti-Poverty program and the invitation to our churches to examine their personnel practices to see that there is no discrimination because of race. He reminded the annual meeting that June 25, 1968 will be the 10th anniversary of the United Church of Christ and proper recognition will be made of it at the General Synod at that time.

The Rev. Wells B. Grogan presented a resolution growing out of a discussion in interest group no. 2. Following discussion, it was moved, seconded and VOTED: WHEREAS, we are deeply shocked and anguished at the killing of Mr. Ben Brown in Jackson, Mississippi (5/11/67), we resolve that the President of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ send telegrams to the Mayor of Jackson, the Governor of Mississippi, the President of the United States and our Senators from Massachusetts, expressing our deep concern for justice in this matter.

(The following telegrams were sent: To Governor Paul Johnson, Jackson, Mississippi: The Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ in annual session voted its deep sense of shock over student uprising at Jackson State College which led to the police slaying of an innocent bystander. We expect that as Governor of the State you will conduct a full and impartial investigation both to exonerate the innocent and bring the guilty to justice.

To Mayor Allen Thompson, Jackson, Mississippi: The Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ in annual session voted its deep sense of shock over the unwarranted shooting of Mr. Ben Brown. We request a full, complete and impartial investigation.

To: President Lyndon B. Johnson, Senators Edward M. Kennedy and Edward W. Brooke: The Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ in annual session voted that since a student uprising at Jackson State College has led to the death of an innocent bystander, we request that the Federal government take all possible steps to prevent the further repression and reprisals against the Negro people. We further request that the government bring Mr. Ben Brown's murderer to trial in Federal Court.)

The meeting recessed at 6:10 p.m. to go to the State Mutual Life Assurance Building for a dinner meeting beginning at 6:30 p.m. The recognition of new ministers and ministers in the 50th year of their ordination was conducted by Dr. Penner and Dr. Fowell. The Rev. Samuel L. Laviscount gave the response on behalf of the 50-year ministers. The speaker of the evening was Dr. Alford Carleton, Executive Vice-President of the United Church Board for World Ministries whose subject was, "We Do Not Lose Heart."

The dinner meeting closed at 8:30 p.m. and the Chaplain gave the closing prayer and benediction.

Delegates and guests were invited to take a tour of the building following the dinner meeting.

At 9:00 p.m. in Merriman Hall, Central Church, a coffee house, The Gates, sponsored by the Committee on Christian Education was open and the play, "The Undertaking" by Patricia Vought Schneider was presented by members of the Dramaturgy Guild, Boston. A dialogue followed, led by Professor Dwight Walsh of Boston University School of Theology, including the actors and author. Another dialogue between the folk singer, Miss Valerie E. Russell and the Rev. Stanley J. Keach followed Miss Russell's performance of a number of folk ballads.

A Communion breakfast was held, beginning at 7:30 a.m. Saturday, May 13, with communion in the sanctuary. Rev. Albert J. Penner and the Rev. James N. McCutcheon led the service and members of the staff served as deacons and deaconesses.

At 9:00 a.m., the Moderator called the business meeting to order in the Memorial Auditorium where the delegates and guests were gathered around tables of 10. Because of his participation in the report of the Structures Committee, Mr. Frost called on the Vice Moderator, the Rev. Malcolm Matheson, to assume the leadership of the meeting.

Mr. Matheson called on Mr. Charles E. Butler, Chairman of the Structures Committee to present the report of that committee. Mr. Butler introduced the members of the Committee who were seated on the stage and then outlined the morning's procedure. The first report was given by Dr. Paul F. Ross of Arthur D. Little, Inc. who made further comments on the printed report which was in the hands of delegates and guests. Other members of the ADL team present were: Mr. Sherman Kingsbury and Dr. James N. Gettemy. Dr. Ross expressed sincere appreciation for the invaluable help of the committee, the coopted members in particular who worked directly with the ADL team. Dr. Gettemy spoke briefly on the identity and purpose of the Conference as revealed by those who participated in the many discussion groups and their understanding of our relationship to the United Church of Christ and the Church-at-large. He stressed flexibility as the stance which will be necessary to achieve the role of the United Church of Christ in Massachusetts.

Dr. Ross continued the discussion by stressing the role of leadership in the Conference and the key position of the Board of Trustees in helping to develop this leadership, both lay and professional. The constant need to understand and meet the pressures, urgent needs, etc. as expressed by the churches was also described.

The Chairman, Mr. Butler, presented the written recommendations of the Structures Committee. All delegates had received these in advance. He explained how the Structure Committee had arrived at these recommendations and then he called on two members of the committee, the Rev. James D. Riddle, Lincoln and the Rev. Paul C. Clayton, Beverly, to give additional explanation and background for the recommendations. Mr. Frost was called upon to give greater information concerning our financial situation and to consider what the forecast might be if the recommendations were accepted.

At 10:30 a.m., there was a twenty minute buzz session and coffee break. Coffee and doughnuts were served at the tables. Delegates were urged to discuss the report and to write out any questions they would like to have discussed by members of the committee in the next hour. These were collected by the ushers and given to Mr. Butler who distributed them among the members of the Structures Committee for their oral answers. Another hour was given to questions and answers.

Box lunches were served at the tables at 12:30 p.m.

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 p.m. with Mr. Frost resuming his position of Moderator of the meeting.

Mr. Butler, Chairman of the Structures Committee, presented the full report of recommendations of that committee for action.

There was brief discussion concerning the fact that the report does not include any new staff member or program in the field of Race. It was moved and

VOTED: That 5 (b) of the Report of the Structures Committee be amended to read: "That the Board of Trustees study additional staff services, such as Christian Education, and Research, Race and attendant problems; and make plans for upgrading and decentralizing the Conference Staff; and prepare cost estimates."

It was then moved and unanimously

VOTED: That the following report of the Structures Committee be approved:

REPORT OF STRUCTURES COMMITTEE—
IMPLEMENTATION OF GUIDELINES

Presented for action to the Annual Meeting, May 13, 1967

1. We recommend that this Conference receive the report of the six month study of Arthur D. Little, Inc., and adopt the eight guidlines for change as the basis for immediate and continued action: 1) Support Professional Leadership; 2) Decentralize Conference Staff Services; 3) Transform the Associations; 4) Increase Leadership by the Board of Trustees; 5) Restructure Committees of the Conference; 6) Develop Conference Staff; 7) Clarify Functions of the Annual Meeting and its Delegates; 8) Increase Flexibility of Structures and Program.

2. We recommend that this Conference as a vital part of the restructuring process vote to hold a recessed meeting of the Conference on October 28, 1967, to hear reports on steps taken to implement change, and to act on further steps which will be possible at that time.
3. We recommend that the Conference Board of Trustees be instructed immediately to:
   a) Free the Area Ministers of all responsibilities that are not directly related to their service to the Associations, churches, and ministers in their geographical areas.
   b) Determine ways to continue the Conference wide work formerly performed by the Area Ministers.
   c) Employ a Business Manager and also a Director of Communications.
4. We recommend that the Associations study further their functions, such as holding the standing of churches and ministers, program and relationships.
5. We recommend that the following duties be assigned, that, after study, written reports be submitted to the churches and delegates by September 1st, that these be discussed by delegates and ad hoc groups at local church, Association or Area levels in preparation for recommendations to come before the October 28, 1967 recessed meeting for action:
   a) That a Task Force, appointed by the Chairman of the Structures Committee and the President of the Conference, prepare a detailed program for the support of all professional leaders (as per ADL Guidelines, page 27), and cost estimates for such a program.
   b) That the Board of Trustees study additional staff services, such as Christian Education and Research, and Race and attendant problems; make plans for upgrading and decentralizing the Conference Staff; and prepare cost estimates.
   c) That the Structures Committee prepare recommendations, and. where necessary by-law changes with respect to:
      1) The reduction and simplification of the committee structure of the Conference.
      2) The reconstitution and reorganization of the Board of Trustees.
      3) The representation and functions of the delegates to the Conference meeting.
      4) The holding of standing of churches and ministers in either the Conference or the Associations.
   d) To continue the local involvement in the process of change.
6. We recommend that this conference make the following plans for the fiscal implications of these motions:
   a) That the Board of Trustees take from available unrestricted invested funds the 1967 costs of changes implemented in 1967.
   b) That the decision on 1968 Per Capita and OCWM retention be delayed until the recessed meeting in October; that the delegates, churches, ministers and Associations be urged to discuss and report to the Trustees their opinions on the following means of funding: 1) retention of percentages from OCWM funds; 2) Per Capita assessments; 3) Use of invested and contingency funds; 4) funds derived from special campaigns; 5) other new ways for the production of income; and that the Board of Trustees report to the churches before October 28, 1967 their recommendations for funding further developments.
7. We recommend finally to Conference delegates, local churches and ministers, Association and Area representatives, Conference staff, members of all organizations in the Massachusetts Conference, and members of the Board of Trustees, the attitudes of expectancy and flexibility in the present situation so that in our operational behaviour, with deep respect for the integrity of all, we may recognize and realize the potential for Christian witness and outreach inherent in the possibilities of organizational change.

It was moved and

VOTED: That a vote of appreciation be extended to the Arthur D. Little team.

The Moderator called on Mr. David W. Bartlett, Chairman of the Nominating Committee to present the report of that committee. Copies of the ballot and the mimeographed report were passed to delegates and guests.

It was moved and

VOTED: That the Nominating Committee report be accepted and that the Clerk cast one ballot.

It was moved and

VOTED: That nominations for the Officers and Executive Staff be closed.

The delegates marked their ballots and they were collected by the ushers for the count.

The Moderator called on the Rev. H. Merrill Emery, Chairman of the Committee on Our Christian World Mission who referred the delegates and guests to the report of that Committee in Advance Reports, page 29 and the suggested resolution for vote. After discussion, it was moved and

VOTED:

1. That the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ endorse the policy of the Stewardship Council which establishes suggested dollar goals for all the Conferences of the United Church of Christ.
2. That the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ enthusiastically accept the goal of $1,514,000 as a minimum standard for its fair share of Our Christian World Mission in 1968.
3. That the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ seek to underwrite this goal by encouraging each local congregation to accept a specific dollar goal for 1968 as suggested by the Conference and the Associations.

The Moderator announced that there were 640 ballots cast and declared the slate elected.

The Moderator called on the Rev. Daniel Leavitt, Co-chairman of the Advance Committee who introduced the members of that committee seated on the stage. The report of the Committee was read, including the proposed resolution for action. Following discussion, it was moved and unanimously VOTED: That we, the delegates assembled at this 168th annual meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, receive the report of the Advance Committee and approve in principle the inclusion of Advance with Our Christan World Mission and that further we instruct the committees on Advance and Our Christan World Mission to prepare a plan with initial recommendations for submission to the churches at an adjourned meeting of the Conference on October 28, 1967.

The Moderator called on the Rev. James C. Glasser, Chairman of the Business Committee, who presented the hospitality resolution. It was moved and

VOTED: WHEREAS the hospitality we enjoy at a State Conference gathering is most vital to our effective corporate functioning, and to our individual happiness, becoming one of our most precious experiences and memories, and

WHEREAS, many people have planned, and labored zealously for our comfort, and

WHEREAS, Central Church in Worcester, as host for the 168th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, its ministers, and other cooperating churches, and groups in the community (city officials, the police department, State Mutual Life Assurance Company of America, Assumption College, to give only a partial list) have anticipated our wants and masterfully met our needs, and

Therefore, be it RESOLVED that we extend to our hosts and to the leaders of our thought and worship and fellowship, our highest praise, and our heartiest thanks; and Therefore, be it further RESOLVED, that this resolution be adopted by a rising vote of appreciation.

It was further moved and VOTED: That all other resolutions which had been read be placed on the table until the President's Report be heard.

The Moderator then presented Dr. Albert J. Penner, Minister and President of the Conference for his annual report. Dr. Penner was accorded a standing ovation. The text of his report is as follows: Before his address, Dr. Penner introduced the Executive Staff.

THE PRESIDENT'S REPORT — 1967.

Since this is my 9th Annual Report, one might assume that its writing would be child's play. Let me assure you that such has not been the case. I have been asked to reflect upon, react to, comment upon the extraordinary events of this day; and I had to assume that you, the delegates, would substantially accept the reports as submitted. This you have done. The actions which you have taken this day are so bold and far reaching that they will surely make this one of the most significant Annual Meetings ever held in our Conference. I would like to look down the road with you a bit and sketch the prospect before us, as I see it.

Let me first comment briefly about the process of study and planning which has demanded so much of both the Structures and the Advance Committees. The work for those most directly engaged has been both exhausting and exhilerating. On your behalf, I pay particular tribute to the Committees, and especially to their Chairmen. For the Advance Committee, our Co-Chairmen, Mr. Albert O. Wilson, Jr. and the Rev. Daniel Leavitt have worked smoothly as a team and coordinated the wealth of suggestions and ideas that have flowed from all parts of the Conference. And for the Structures Committee, first Mr. Loomis Patrick and then Mr. Charles E. Butler have presided with fairness, with skill, with careful preparation over a strong committee, representing divergent points of view, and yet coming to this meeting with a unanimous report. I do not see how it could have been handled better.

With this meeting the Arthur D. Little Company has made its report and concluded the work contractually agreed upon and begun on October 30 of last year. Their findings and suggestions are now for us to use.

I hope that all of you have read, or will read, the Arthur D. Little report and read it with careful thought. It tells us much about ourselves, at all different levels. Some of it we knew—and probably did not wish to admit. Actually the report reflects what all of us expressed in one way or another. It is all drawn against a background of unrest and uncertainty in the world at large as well as in our communities, and in our local churches. Statistically our churches are not growing in attendance and church membership has slightly declined. There is a marked decrease in religious assurance. Those who saw last Sunday's TV documentary, "The New Morality: Challenge of the Student Generation," probably could not miss the well decumented conclusion that "the student generation is growing away from institutionalized religion that remains aloof from the crisis of the hour and reduces ethics to an impersonal code of do's and don'ts."

Everywhere, in the religious field, there is ambivalence: a desire for change—a fear of change; wishing to maintain the status quo—impatience with things as they are; nostalgia for the past—a rejection of the past. It is a situation that affects us all: in the local church as much or perhaps even more than in the church structures beyond the local church. Many churches are engaged in self-studies, and this will receive a strong fresh impetus during the next two years as we participate in the 1968 and 1969 denominational Biennial Emphasis on "The Local Church in God's Mission." We are at present organizing a Task Force (an Ad Hoc Committee) to lead our Massachusetts participation in this Emphasis.

Some other Conferences have had, or are planning, studies. The United Church of Christ is in the midst of a Structures Study, the results of which will not be disclosed until well after the June Synod meeting. A Commission on Theological Education is probing the question of "Theological Education in the United Church of Christ." So we are not alone.

We have a job to do. We need to gird ourselves to do it. We need to do it together. This awareness of our interdependence—despite our long traditions of autonomy and going it alone—is to me one of the most significant signs of our times made clear by the ADL report. We are, in fact and in intent, a more connectional fellowship than we have dared to avow.

I am sure I speak for the Conference staff, and I believe also for the Trustees, when I say that we intend with energy and in good faith to move in the directions you have indicated by your actions today. Among the changes suggested—or ordered—some are easy, others more difficult; some cheap, others expensive; some definite, others tentative; some modest, others ambitious; some immediate, others long range.

Let me suggest things that can be initiated right away, and without any budgetary considerations. Among these are all the suggestions having to do with the reorganization of the Board of Trustees, the restructuring and streamlining of Conference Committees, the improvement of the Annual Meeting, the revision of By-laws as these become necessary, some deployment of staff, the completion of the Study on Compensation of ministers and other professional church staff persons, the beginning of a series of dialogues involving Conference staff, including myself, with groups of local professional staff leaders, study in all Associations of their functions, programs and relationships and perhaps several more.

Other proposals can be initiated immediately because their cost is small and can be provided for from within normal budgeting procedures. Here I include the development of other Area offices, beginning perhaps first with an office in the Central Area, upgrading of staff by having one or more take part in special training experiences (such as the Bethel, Maine "Human Relations Laboratory"), and the planning of one or more pilot projects for in-service training of ministers.

Some proposals have implications which require a good deal of further thought and careful planning. For example, if Mr. Phillippi is now to be released from major OCWM (Our Christian World Mission) responsibility, how is that responsibility to be discharged in the future? Does it mean another full-time staff portfolio, or are there some new directions worth exploring—with the Stewardship Council, with other Conferences, or what? The right answer is not immediately obvious.

Similarly, if Mr Vuilleumier is to be released from the Craigville directorship, the Centers Committee will need to concern itself with adequate leadership there. We've already begun to explore this staffing problem, but there are many factors to be weighed and the right answer is not self-evident. In both of these situations, matters of budget are of course important considerations.

A Business Manager and a full-time Director of Communications represent major expansion of staff, with provision for salary, fringe benefits, office space, secretarial help, etc. We have already given some thought to the job descriptions for both of these roles, but before these positions are filled many questions must be seriously asked and answered. For instance, can such a post as Business Manager perhaps include a purchasing department serving both ourselves and others (perhaps even local churches) and thus help to pay for itself?

We now provide about half a budget for an Office of Communication which will be of material help in trying to fill that office. What should the job include; could it include some direct service to churches? The post itself needs careful scrutiny and evaluation.

As soon as the Board of Trustees has had an opportunity to study ways and means to effect such staff changes and developments, you will be informed. Whether it can all be done by October 28 is naturally uncertain,—some of it surely will be. We shall make progress as rapidly as we can.

There is a further consideration which has a very real relationship to what we have decided about Structures, and in my opinion, a very great potential for its proper development, and that is the plan for a new Mission Advance. In a quite remarkable way, at a number of points, Structures and Advance converge and flow together and in fact become one. Let me illustrate. The proposal for "a detailed program for the support of all professional leaders (ministers, associates, directors of Christian Education, etc.) is #1 in both. The call to help deal with the plight of small churches, to help effect unions, forms of cooperative ministry, mergers whether denominational or ecumenical, is part of both programs. The demand for opportunities for in-service training, workshops, pilot projects for clergy and laity alike is high on both lists. The new flexible stance, readiness to move rapidly in new directions with creative new programs is in the forefront of the thinking of both planning groups. The development of further service in Christian Education and in Research is in the proposals of both. Actually, the hopes of restructuring and the hope of a new program of Conference Mission Advance are two sides of one coin. They together describe our forward look.

And both belong to Our Christan World Mission. Let me say this once more—I have said it each year: the letters OCWM stand for the whole mission: in the world, and in Massachusetts; through our denomination and its mission boards, and through our Conference. All the work of the Church at home and abroad, here among our churches and to the ends of the earth, is MISSION. OUR MISSION IS ALL ONE. This concept, as developed in the Advance Committee report, is a really great idea. It avoids the confusion with Breakthrough and everything else and gives a grand vision of unity to the total mission of our churches.

Here let me interject a very important matter. I have been speaking thus far of our plans for our work here in our state. In the development of a Conference program, we must keep in vivid remembrance that we belong to a family called the United Church of Christ. Its needs are fully as great as ours, and our obligations to help there are as real as our obligations to ourselves.

Last evening you heard Dr. Carleton speak on behalf of the Board for World Ministries. I can support every statement he made, as for several years, I was a member of that Board and sat on its Budget Committee. You also heard Mr. Lockyear, the Treasurer of the United Church of Christ, and I can support every statement he made, for I am currently serving as a member of the Budget Committee of the United Church of Christ. "Mounting inflation and falling support" have brought the agencies of our fellowship into a most serious crisis. This is our crisis, too.

We are now making a new effort—Conference Executives of all the 40 Conferences, and national staff—to see our total mission as ONE MISSION, to consult with one another about plans and budgets as we never have before, and to try to set up some standards of Mission Priorities. All of us, and that includes Massachusetts, must be ready and willing to lay our plans on the table, and invite the critical review and comments of the rest of the fellowship. What this means is that we must not make our own plans at the expense of the larger family. We all belong together.

I think we can do this. We have the means. There can be no doubt of that. But it will only be done if we have the faith, and we pray, and if we mean business.

I hope we will take very seriously the recommendation of the Structures Committee that "the delegates, churches, ministers and Associations be urged to discuss and report to the Trustees their opinions on the means of financing" the great new programs we wish to undertake. No plan of any kind has been decided upon. It is all open for future determination. From many alternatives and points of view we hope by next October to achieve a real consensus on a plan that is both bold and possible, challenging and yet within our capability.

To achieve such a consensus requires that everyone here must be an interpreter of this One Mission in his own church. All of us who are here, you ministers and you lay delegates, I beg you, begin now to prepare your churches, your membership, to take part. Talk with persons in your sister churches, dream about it, develop plans in Associations and Areas. Set up ad hoc committees, teams of volunteers who will be ready to work. As plans are being worked out, and as these plans will be shared beginning in early September, see that they are widely understood. Take a positive, hopeful attitude, and not a negative critical one. We are going to have to lift our sights, all of us, to a level we have not before achieved. To achieve it by faith could work the miracle of renewal in all our churches.

Twice in the ADL report appear the words: "The challenge to the United Church in Massachusetts is a choice: senescence or renewal." ACTION IS THE TACIT CHOICE OF RENEWAL. It is to action that we are called; action based on surer knowledge than we've had before because many of us have been thinking together about our work; action based on faith; action for the sake of Christ and His Kingdom.

The action, the implementation, begins now, today, here, and it will be continued this summer and next fall, and the next year, and the year after that, and the year after that,—for the story has no ending.

Speaking for myself, let me say this: so far as God gives me strength, I pledge to walk with you along this new road. I will seek to provide such leadership as I can. I shall try not to be afraid to attempt a new road, to try a new program, to undertake a new challenge if this is the way the Spirit leads.

I can tell you also that this is the mood of your entire staff. We are not on the defensive; we are ready to join you on a new offensive; or, if you like the figure better, in a new partnership. I know that this winter we've learned much better than we knew it before to feel ourselves as a team and to play as a team. The experiences of the past winter have left none of us unchanged, but we believe the change is all for the better. We are ready to serve you, to support you, to work with you as we can, God being our helper.

We who are sharing this experience in this Annual Meeting are as those "who have put their hands to the plow." If we look back, we are not fit for the Kingdom. Rather, let us hear the ancient word of encouragement (Joshua 1:9), "Be strong and of good courage; be not frightened, neither be dismayed; for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go."

ALBERT J. PENNER.

The report of the Credentials Committee indicated the following registration:

Lay Delegates	498
Minister Delegates	328
Guests	275
Ex Officio Delegates	54
Total	1155

The Moderator expressed deep appreciation to the Rev. Robert I. Little, Chairman of the Annual Meeting Program Committee and to the Rev. James N. McCutcheon, host minister, as well as those who had served in so many ways during the conference.

The Rev. Malcolm Matheson was presented as the new Moderator of the Conference and the gavel was passed to him. A brief response was made.

The Annual Meeting was recessed until October 28, 1967.

The evening program was held at Assumption College, Worcester, with Rev. Robert W. Little presiding. Following dinner, the Very Rev. Ernest L. Fortin, A.A., Vice President of Assumption College and Dr Oscar E. Remick, UCC minister and professor of Philosophy and Theology at Assumption College spoke on "The Anguish of Unity." A question and answer period followed their dialogue.

In his closing remarks, Dr. Penner said: "Mr. Chairman, Father Dion, honored guests, delegates from our churches. We close this strenuous and exciting 168th Annual Meeting on a high spiritual note. Your announcement, Father Dion, of the establishment of a new Ecumenical Institute for the continuing education of clergy and laity is truly exciting. Tomorrow, as we Protestants who have not been very faithful in the observance of the Christian calendar need to be reminded, is the Day of Pentecost when the Holy Spirit was poured out upon the earliest church. This, according to the Scriptures, happened when they were all gathered together in one place. Our meeting here on this splendid and beautiful campus of Assumption College is a symbol of our present stance—the real desire to draw together across confessional lines. We thank you, Father Dion, for graciously providing the setting, and you, Father Fortin and Dr. Remick, for directing our thought and stirring our vision. You pastors, as tomorrow you stand in your pulpits, ill or well prepared, wait on the Spirit. Wait in the mood of expectancy and seek to convey to your congregations the vision you have caught. I am glad to be alive today, and to stand where I stand, part of the significant happening in which we have shared. This has indeed been a night to be remembered. Thank you all and may God bless you all."

The Rev. James N. McCutcheon gave the closing prayer and benediction.

Almighty and Everlasting God, we praise and magnify Thy Holy Name for all Thou has accomplished, in us and through us, over the past year and on this historic occasion. We thank Thee for prospering our efforts to renew and revitalize our Conference, for guiding us into new pathways of Mission and service, for the Ecumenical Institute inaugurated this evening, and for our continuing confidence that still more light and truth shall break forth out of Thy Holy Word.

O Thou who art the Guide and Guardian of all faithful souls, we beseech Thee to watch between us "while we are absent one from the other"; but, above all, to hasten the day when all Christians will again break the Bread of Life and drink the cup of the new covenant, in Christ's blood, together. To this end, on the eve of Pentecost, we once more raise the ancient prayer of those blessed apostles and martyrs, whose blood was the seed of the Church, "Come, Holy Spirit, Come!"

Now unto Him who is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus, throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

MYRON W. FOWELL, Secretary

The Reverend Albert J. Penner, D.D., President
Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ
Boston, Massachusetts

We have examined the balance sheets of Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ and of Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, Trustee, as at December 31, 1966, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at December 31, 1966, were verified by inspection or confirmation, and the cash in banks and in office by certificate or count.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Conference and of the Conference as Trustee, respectively, at December 31, 1966, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donors, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the sum of ..... Dollars.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH UNION OF BOSTON AND VICINITY

President, Rev. Albert J. Penner, 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108
Treasurer, Mr. W. Elliott Pratt, Jr., 14 Beacon Street, Boston 02108
Secretary, Mr. Douglas L. Ley, 10 State Street, Boston 02109

Composed of the U.C.C. and Congregational churches of the Metropolitan Boston Association, its original object was "to promote religion and morality in Boston and the outlying cities and towns, by establishment and support of evangelical Congregational Churches, Sunday-schools, and Missions." Since 1939 it has had a Board of Directors interlocking with the officers of the Massachusetts Conference. Its promotional functions have been turned over to the Conference. Its Board of Directors administers the permanent funds of which it is Trustee.

CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY, BOSTON, INC. 1820

President, STUART C. HASKINS
Vice-President, ARTHUR V. GETCHELL
Vice-President, JAMES E. GALLAGHER
Clerk, WILLIAM H. NICOLAS
Executive Secretary, F. NELSEN SCHLEGEL
Treasurer, S. CARLISLE CROSBY
Staff: full-time 17; part-time (including summer program) 70

The City Missionary Society has been the social service arm of Congregational churches in Metropolitan Boston since 1816. It now has an important place in the life of the Metropolitan Boston Association, whose constitution refers to the Society as "a recognized instrumentality of the Metropolitan Boston Association." Committees of Metropolitan Boston Association and of City Missionary Society are working together on several programs.

CMS holds membership in the Family Service Section of the Greater Boston Community Council, The American Conference of Social Work, and the New England Camping Association. Its ten missionary social workers are attached to Congregational churches in the inner city, and they work closely with public and private social agencies.

The Society's social workers are aided by many volunteers who engage in numerous useful services of visitation, teaching, manual labor, etc. A Voluntary Case-Aide program has 28 dedicated volunteers from Roxbury and from several suburban communities, assisting the Boston Redevelopment Authority in efforts to relocate multi-problem families. The CMS' Consultant in Christian Education aids inner city churches in programs of leadership education. Through her supervision of "Friendly Town" activities she also helps many small communities to understand inner city people by arranging for them to become "hosts" to city children for two-week summer vacations.

The Society's summer camping programs provide meaningful activity for children of all ages and for adult members of low-income families. Camps Andover-Waldron on Lake Winnisquam, in Meredith, N. H., are open to children 9-16 years of age. They provide opportunities for interracial and intercultural contacts in a Christian setting. Family camps and week-end retreats for church groups are held under CMS sponsorship at the Farrington Memorial property in Lincoln, Mass.

CMS receives no income from United Funds. Principal support comes from Congregational churches in Metropolitan Boston, from interested individuals and trust funds, and from endowment. Much aid in relief comes from the Howard Benevolent Society. Many churches and Sunday Schools regularly aid with collections of clothing and furniture.

The Society's income in the fiscal year ending October 31, 1966, was $450,334 (this amount included legacies of $233,375, some of which were for limited use). Ninety-three of the 110 churches in the Metropolitan Boston Association contributed $48,310; 63 churches of other associations and denominations gave a total of $3,916. The operating deficit in 1966 was $59,143.

City Missionary Society was incorporated in 1820. Its corporate members are elected at the annual meeting, held in November each year. Every supporting congregation is entitled to nominate a representative to serve for a two-year term on the corporation.

THE WORCESTER CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Executive Secretary ..... Dr. Frank E. Duddy
President ..... Norman G. Orrell
Treasurer ..... Arthur B. Kemp
Secretary ..... Mrs. James E. Quirk
Auditor ..... Rev. Winthrop G. Hall

Aids Worcester Churches financially, promotes cooperation among churches, and sponsors interchurch activities in Worcester and vicinity.

Contributions for home missions from the churches in Worcester, to be credited on the apportionment, should be sent to the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. Contributions for the local work, given in addition to the apportionment and not to be credited as a part of it, should be sent to the treasurer of the Worcester City Missionary Society.

THE CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY OF THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

(Proprietor of the Congregational House)

Room 207, 14 Beacon Street, Boston

The Congregational Library was founded in 1853 to gather and preserve books, pamphlets and manuscripts on Congregational history and to promote the general interests of Congregational churches. In addition to the historic collection on Congregationalism the library has important collections of Bibles, in a variety of languages and versions, hymnals, and histories of local churches and towns. New books, with the exception of fiction, are purchased every week in the fields of: preaching and pastoral work, philosophy and theology, Biblical commentary, church history, religious education, worship and devotion, missions and the ecumenical movement, church arts and architecture, denominations, sects, and world religions, social problems, and biography.

These resources, approximately 200,000 books and pamphlets, are available to ministers, lay preachers, church officers, church school teachers, students, and all interested in reading for enrichment of life. Books are mailed without charge to all parts of the United States. A letter or postcard giving author, title or the subject of books desired, will receive prompt attention. The Library is open for study and research Monday through Friday, 9-5. A copy of a leaflet, "The Congregational Library" and the Bulletin will be sent to those writing for further information.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Grants for the aid of churches and certain other types of work are made by the Conference through the Board of Trustees, following recommendation by the Budget Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Grants are made to local churches (to strengthen the ministry of the church); to hospital chaplaincies; to week-day religious education programs in certain churches; to St. Mark Social Center; to other interdenominational projects in Massachusetts; and other work as need arises. In co-operation with the Committee on Campus Ministries grants are made for student work both on campus and in churches near campuses.

Requests for grants come to the Budget Committee through the member of the Conference executive staff who is particularly concerned either with the area or the type of work.

Grants to local churches are made under the following circumstances:

1. Where a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by a church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local association of churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid, different amounts will be appropriated according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the Area Minister or President before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. When the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1966 by placing the reference "§" before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled, "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears.

All grants coincide with the calendar year. Applications must be processed through the association grants committee, or the committee on campus ministries and presented to the area minister by October 1.

Special grants are listed on page 59.

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the National Year Book;

2. The Associations of Churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational and United Church of Christ churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1967. Admissions and removals cover the year 1966. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1967, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools," and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational and United Church of Christ ministers may be found in the lists of the local associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:
"Cld." — Called "C." — Confession

Reference marks are used as follows:

y Pastor serves more than one church.
—Where no answer can be given.

|| When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday school and young people's organizations, also home expense, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked || in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Amount of "Local Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday school, choir and parish.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational or United Church of Christ churches within the federated churches. Figures pertaining to Church School enrollment, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS

Dates from the earliest times of the colony. Annual Business and Public meeting is held at 10:30 A.M., the first Monday in May. At this service several addresses are made and a collection is taken which, together with the income of the Convention fund, is distributed to the needy widows and daughters of deceased Congregational ministers.

Every Trinitarian Congregational and Unitarian Congregational minister resident in Massachusetts is ex officio a member of the Convention.

Officers—Moderator, Rev. Robert B. Day, 112 Mt. Vernon St., Boston 02108; Treasurer, Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy 02169; Scribe, Rev. Harold F. Worthley, Box 1026, Norton 02766.

Directors—Rev. J. Allyn Bradford, 14 High St., Andover 01810; Rev. John K. Hammon, 874 Beacon St., Boston.

Applications for aid may be addressed to either the Moderator or the Treasurer.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY

Incorporated in 1786. Organized to hold the funds of the Convention. Composed of fifteen clergymen and fifteen laymen, elected from both branches of the Congregational body. Aids the needy widows and unmarried daughters of deceased Congregational clergymen who have had settlement in Massachusetts. President, Hon. Charles S. Bolster; Vice-President, Mr. Marcus Morton; Secretary, Rev. Bradford E. Gale; Treasurer, Mr. Alfred P. Putnam; Committee on Appropriations, Rev. Myron W. Fowell, Rev. Bradford E. Gale, Rev. Vaughan Dabney and Rev. Robert B. Day.

Applications for aid should be made to Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy 02169.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $12,881,036, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.
